

This booklet is the first in the series Ethnic Minorities in the Confederate Military. It lists 20 Cuban born and or partial descendants of Cubans who served in the Confederate Military, from Alabama between 1861 and 1865. It lists their names, ranks and units, as well as known Biographical Information on each Soldier. This is a truly forgotten aspect of the Confederate Military, the Civil War and Cuban History. It makes a great resource for Historians, Genealogists, Civil War Scholars and anyone interested in Ethnic participation in the Confederate Military, as well as those interested in Cuban American History and Hispanic American History.
