

If there is anything that characterizes God's people in America today, it is the loss of the fear of God, states Henry Blackaby. When you do not fear God, he contends, you will not fear sin. The troubling result of this issue is that many Christians fail to recognize that they have sinned against God. The lack of holiness within the Church has reached epidemic levels. True revival can only come, notes Blackaby, when the people of God return to a healthy, holy fear of Him. God, in His holiness, is grieved by our lack of it. In his worthy book, Blackaby urges believers to look inward, to see sin from God's perspective, and to live the standard that He has set up in Scripture. He writes, The salvation of the nation has little to do with Washington or Hollywood - it has to do with the people of God!

Be holy, for I the Lord your God am holy (Leviticus 19:2). The first thing I do is go to a concordance and find where the word (holiness) and related words (e.g., sanctification, sanctify) are used in the Bible. Baker's Encyclopedia of the Bible says, "The primary Old Testament concept of holiness is that of God's holiness. The holiness of God is a powerful force and an interesting study. Read on to learn more about God's holiness."

All of this is critical to understand before I begin to unpack the doctrine of holiness. Why? Because I'm very aware that what we're about to.

God is holy and even instructs us to be holy. What does it mean to be holy, and how can we meet that expectation?

The word translated holiness in the New Testament means to be set apart. In the Old Testament, holiness was generally connected with God's perfection.

Holiness means following Jesus Christ, imitating Him in thoughts, feelings, words and deeds. It means loving God and neighbour, with a love that gives rise to. My grandmother was part of a Holiness Pentecostal church. That meant "among many wonderful things" that they believed in entire.
