

Part Three of the Five Part Dystopian Fiction Series, Newlander: Without realizing what has happened to him, John settles into island life and begins his career within the corridors of power. His direct superior, Sergeant Red, then asks him to do something that he considers very wrong, yet he is between a rock and a hard place with no way out. Torn between doing what he wants or what he must, a girl from his past comes into his life again, but the results for her could be disastrous... With his world and sense of self crumbling around him, John becomes aware of a man seemingly outside of the islands control, and resolves to find him and get the answers he so desperately needs...
