

This is a story about a hog farmer. Mike was from a family battling to make a living from that most friendly of animals – the pig. They were nice enough people, but there were some who thought they were being not at all nice to their pigs. Mike was raised on a small farm; the sort that gave an honest livelihood to countless rural families. Those same farms that fed a hungry nation during the war. Then came factory farming. It was a huge success story. But the family pig farm ceased to exist as a way-of-life. And as for the pigs? Well ...
