Not illustrated. 1876 Excerpt: ...homes are least Christian in spirit and teachings keep clear of it. Besides, who would be satisfied to have his child put off with one lesson a week in any of the rudimentary branches belonging to the common school? Yet the lesson of lessons, the law and will of God as manifested to his creatures, by which character is formed and moral principles are established, may be satisfactorily learned in the short hour of a Sundayschool. Parents need the church and the best services of the clergyman on Sunday more than their children, that they may not forget the lessons of their youth. THE SPECIAL ADVANTAGES OF CATHOLIC SCHOOLS. It seems more than unreasonable to ask Catholic parents to forego advantages attainable in and through Catholic schools,--advantages far superior to any offered by State schools. First, Catholic schools instruct in all the useful branches of a sound English education. Secondly, They are more economical, costing no more than one-fourth or one-third the expense of supporting State schools; and commanding at the lowest possible price, merely food and clothing, one of the most expensive necessities of the age and country,--skilled and trained intellectual labor. Thirdly, Their teachers are devoted to their work of teaching as a life-work; study every day, and waste no time in idle visits and foolish amusements. Fourthly, These teachers are in sympathy with the religious faith of the patrons of their schools. Fifthly, Parental schools alone will stand the test of logic; they are consonant to sound democratic republican doctrines; they make possible the inculcation of morality by the authority of a divine Lawgiver; they respect the natural rights of parents, and meddle with and infringe on no one else's rights. They are a necessity demanded by t...
